“Living up to our responsibility means protecting the future. Our goal is to create a sustainable loop for high-quality products made of synthetic materials. We are developing the right solutions today for tomorrow’s world and future generations.

As determined and ambitious doers, we have the strength and the will to deliver positive change in everything we do. But we want to be more than a pioneer. We want to be a role model for others. A role model for anyone who - like us - feels equally committed and capable of rising to this major challenge. Taking action today and making the right decisions for tomorrow is at the heart of everything we do.

We are making this commitment clear to the outside world with a completely new brand identity featuring a new design, a new logo and a new slogan.
